

PLAN OF LOBBY, MEETING ROOMS, ETC.

Sterling, Colorado is a progressive rural community of approximately 11,000 with 20,000 residing in Logan County. It is located in the high plains area, 125 miles northeast of Denver on I-76. It serves a surrounding area of 150 miles in diameter as a trade, education, cultural and health center.

Activities for visitors are abundant, including a modern recreation facility, two championship golf courses, the Overland Trail Museum, tours of the "Living Tree Sculptures," and much, much more. Dining and accommodation opportunities are also plentiful, making your visit to Sterling an enjoyable experience.